Wielka Encyklopedia PWN

(The PWN Great Encyclopedia)

The largest Polish universal encyclopedia – an important canon of Polish knowledge

- 30 volumes
- Supplement with Indexes
- 3,000 authors and consultants
- 140,000 entries
- 16,000 illustrations
- 700 maps

- ◆ For all those in search of comprehensive, in depth knowledge, fully verified.
- ◆ For school and university students as well as academic staff.
- ◆ Indispensable for home, school, academic and general libraries.

The work of 3,000 authors, consultants and reviewers from Polish academic institutions and scientific circles: the Polish Academy of Sciences, universities, academies, academic centres, independent research bodies, museums, archives, and libraries.

Compiled by the editors at the PWN Encyclopedia Division, which has unique expertise in Poland in the field of encyclopedia editing and which uses modern editing techniques with the aid of numerous specialists: designers, illustrators, cartographers, statisticians and computer experts.

Volume 31, which is envisaged as the supplement to The PWN Great Encyclopedia, will be provided with a CD-ROM with a tool indexing the entire text.

The full set available in October 2005.
